Bob Phillips : Phillips' Treasury of Humorous Quotations before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Phillips' Treasury of Humorous Quotations:

That's the difference between the good quotation collections and the one's like this. Most magazines, newspapers, and all scholarly journals and institutions would no accept a quotation without a source.0 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great for the After Dinner SpeakerBy Joseph G.Great resource if you write or are called upon to speak. Good price; handy asset.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. we have enjoyed reading and learningBy ebWe've been enjoying reading one page a day as a way to brighten our day. Although the book isn't as humorous as we were hoping for, compared to Liz Curtis Higgs or Patsy Claremont, we have enjoyed reading and learning!

Phillips' Treasury of Humorous Quotations is a catalog of more than 1,700 famous (and not so famous) sayings on life. This book is designed to be a ready reference for seminar and sermon preparation, and it's just plain entertaining. Inside you'll find entirely new material. Bob draws from a variety of resources throughout history that are sure to give writers, educators, ministers, and public speakers the perfect quote for their speech or paper.

"Speeches are like babies--easy to conceive but hard to deliver."From the Back CoverWith over 1,700 quotations on more than 800 topics, Bob Phillips' "Treasury of Humorous Quotations" puts the perfect quote for every occasion right at your fingertips. After-Dinner Speeches: An after-dinner speech should be like a lady's dress: long enough to cover the subject and short enough to be interesting (p. 11). Conferences: A conference is a gathering of important people who singly can do nothing but together can decide that nothing can be done (Fred Allen, p. 53). Writing: Writing is easy. All you do is stare at a blank sheet of paper until drops of blood form on your forehead (Gene Fowler, p. 228). Impromptu Speeches: It usually takes me more than three weeks to prepare a good impromptu speech (Mark Twain, p. 119). Conversations: The art of conversation is not knowing what you ought to say but what one ought not to say (p. 56). Speeches: Speeches are like babies--easy to conceive but hard to deliver (Pat O'Malley, p. 200).
