John Lloyd, John Mitchinson : Qi: the Book of Animal Ignorance before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Qi: the Book of Animal Ignorance:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. love it!By Athena ColanisI love this book, full of weird and wonderful facts about some common and not so common animals. It was well researched and over all a thoroughly enjoyable read! There wasn't anything I disliked apart from it ending too soon. I would recommend this book to any animal lovers or people who are interested in unusual facts0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Very enjoyable.By Neil McVeaGood, witty, and very enjoyable; again, not a book I would read at one sitting but read some then digest it.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. WOW !By ARTHUR HOLMANLove animals, lived with and observed them around the globe. This fun fact filled little book brings me great enjoyment by telling me so many odd and curious things I didn't know.

Join the QI team for an off-road safari through a hundred of the most interesting members of the animal kingdom, armed with illuminating illustrations and diagrams by award-winning artist Ted Dewan. Meet the water bears that can live in suspension for hundreds of years, the parasite carried by your cat that makes men grumpy and women promiscuous, and the woodlouse that drinks through its bottom. Marvel at elephants that walk on tiptoe, pigs that shine in the dark, and woodpeckers that have ears on the end of their tongues. If you still think a pangolin is a musical instrument, that hyenas are dogs, or that sheep are pointless and stupid, "The Book of Animal Ignorance" has arrived just in time.

About the AuthorJohn Lloyd and John Mitchinson, supported by a crack research squad of QI elves, are the authors of the bestselling The Book of General Ignorance. Ted Dewan is one of the UK's best-known children's authors and illustrators. His groundbreaking Inside the Whale Other Animals won a Mother Goose Award in 1992.
