This thing unfolds to a massive map. It turns out this isn't exactly the map I needed. This is a detailed Chicago map - the front of the map is from just below Evanston on the north, to around 87th on the south side. The west is full out to the Berwyn. The back of the map has the last bits of the south side - it reaches down to Calumet City. The probably more useful map, generally, is the Chicago and suburbs map. All of Chicago ends up on the front of that map. If you're looking for detail - this is the map to buy. 3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. This map is amazing. Even still has the Sear Tower named correctlyBy Kevin MurphyI used this map to help build a campaign for the Dresden Files RPG game. We used it to draw out lay lines and to mark areas that we wanted to have adventures in. This map is amazing. Even still has the Sear Tower named correctly. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Great help for my in my new neighborhood, especially since it is a maze of one-way streets!By Jean Latz GriffinIncredibly helpful. I have been familiar with Chicago from about North Avenue thru the Loop and much of the South and West sides, but I knew nothing about the North East side. So when I moved to the Portage Park area, I really needed a street-by-street map, all the way up to the beginning of the suburbs. This map does the job. I have posted it on my wall and consult it often. Thanks
