They all have lovely, appropriate-to-the-culture artwork, ready-to-go flashcards, stickers with the foreign words for putting on various objects around the house, exercises, explanations, and more. This book is great for someone who is going to a Spanish-speaking country. The content can equip a student with decent restaurant Spanish, language to use at the hotel, and so on. It is not an in-depth study of grammar, but it can be a fine springboard to more advanced studies. A strong advantage of the book is pronunciation guides. Take the plunge, learn some Spanish, use it where you live, and maybe do some traveling!3 of 3 people found the following review helpful. A little Spanish for the motivated learner...By HMS WarspiteThis "Spanish in 10 minutes a day" guide with CD-ROM is a very useful tool for the motivated learner looking to pick up some Spanish for, say, a visit to Spain or Latin America, or conversion with Spanish-speaking co-workers. It works especially well for students who are visually oriented. The book takes the student through a series of lessons and exercises to build a basic vocabulary and knowledge of sentence structure for reading and speaking Spanish. The simplified pronunciation in the book and the CD-ROM should enable the student to sound out basic words and phrases. Recommended. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Nice methodical process of learning a new language. By Nana TI am using this book in my Spanish class and I really like it. I am very methodical and this book and process works well for me; however learning a new language takes time and effort - so expect to study and practice if you really want to learn Spanish. It does not happen overnight or by magic :)

About the Author Kristine K. Kershul blends her experience as a teacher, world traveler and language scholar to create a playful, innovative way to learn and use a new language. Teacher: As an expert linguist, Kristine spent ten years teaching German at universities in the United States and in Europe. World Traveler: An adventurous spirit, Kristine has explored more than 100 countries, from Bhutan to Zimbabwe, and almost every exotic locale in between. She understands the problems that all travelers encounter, regardless of which country they are visiting. She knows first-hand how languages can open doors to new adventures, new friends and different cultures. Language Scholar: Kristine completed her undergraduate and graduate studies while living in Heidelberg, Germany. She then received a second Master's Degree from the University of California in Santa Barbara and subsequently, did her Doctoral studies in Medieval German Languages and Literature. In addition to German, she also speaks a number of other languages ranging from Arabic to Swahili. A Colorful Background: Kristine's fascination for languages began as a child growing up in a tri-lingual household in Oregon, where Croatian, Danish and English were spoken. Kristine's natural gift for languages opened doors outside the academic world. She worked as a bilingual travel guide in Europe and later, as a translator at the U.S. Embassy in Germany. On A Personal Note: Kristine's passion for travel, foreign languages and new cultures continues to take her around the world. One never knows where she'll venture to next - Namibia, Laos or Guyana. Kristine is a licensed pilot, a certified diver and an avid downhill skier. She enjoys competitive horseback riding and playing the piano. She makes her home in both Seattle, Washington and in Cape Town, South Africa.
