This dictionary is a joint venture created by three highly experienced trainers who are all best-selling authors. Heather Baker was an executive PA at director level for many years and left to start her own training company. She created the BakerWrite speed writing system as a modern and easy to learn alternative to shorthand. Joanna Gutmann is an experienced administrator who started her training consultancy over 20 years ago specializing in minute taking. She is an accredited BakerWrite trainer and developed this dictionary to help people use the system. Margaret Greenhall was a lecturer and became an educational consultant in 2003. Between the three authors this dictionary has been developed to give a huge reference of words to use in speed writing. Quotes about BakerWrite I will use this system all the time. This is so easy to learn and use. I will recommend this course to anyone who takes notes. Joanna Gutmann Joanna became involved in training whilst working in a PA role in a training center. She left to start her business in the early nineties and continued to work in that area, increasingly specializing in business writing. Today, her business is focused on the meeting with training on chairing, minute taking, report writing and speed reading. Joanna is delighted to hold a license to run the BakerWrite speed writing training. Heather Baker Heather is a very experienced PA, who worked at boardroom level for high profile companies. She is now an acclaimed international trainer. She created the BakerWrite™ speed writing system to help people take notes using techniques that can be learned in just a few weeks. She thoroughly tested it and has been teaching it for over eleven years. Dr Margaret Greenhall Margaret was a chemistry lecturer for eight years and she became fascinated by how and why people learn. She moved to staff development and learned more about how people share information with each other. In 2003 Margaret left the university to start a training and educational consultancy business. She combines face to face training with a portfolio of writing and publishing.
