before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Stick It to Your Ticket: The Unofficial Guide to Beating Your Parking Ticket in Chicago:

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Don't waste your money By lkdh8211 Don't waste your money. Even if this is marked down dirt cheap. Don't waste the $3.99 S/H charge. Thought this would give insights into how to fight an unfairly issued ticket. Smoke and mirrors. When it gets down to the bottom line, book suddenly does not have the answers it acts like it has. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. what! By CORA SMITH I did not understand anything that this book was talking about. it went on and on never telling you how the quote stick it to ticket

In the city of Chicago, parking tickets have become part of urban legend. There are approximately 1.35 million vehicles registered in Chicago and thousands of additional vehicles enter from the suburbs on a daily basis. Parking options are limited. Parking lots are outrageously expensive, while street parking simply can't meet demand. The result is 2.8 million parking tickets are issued annually at a cost of over $164 million. This guide is a resource that will explain the parking ordinances, teach you how to avoid parking tickets, and how to properly contest tickets when necessary. This is the only guide available that provides accurate and practical information regarding Chicago's parking laws. Don't throw your hard earned dollars away because of ignorance of the law and fear of the system. This insider's view of Chicago's parking program that can save you money.

About the Author Sheldon Zeiger is an attorney and certified financial planner practicing in Chicago. He is uniquely qualified to write this guidebook as he has worked within Chicago's parking program since its inception in September 1990. For fifteen years, he worked as both a hearing officer with Chicago's Department of Revenue and an administrative law officer with the Department of Administrative Hearings. During his tenure with the city he has adjudicated over 100,000 parking tickets.
