French 1: The Best of French Slang (Street Language) - David Burke
By Kris Zink
This is an entertaining and instructive book that is perhaps a little difficult to learn until one has studied French for at least a year. However, there is a glossary in the back of the book, along with side-by-side translations throughout. Learning a few French slang phrases is fun and helps the French student feel more at home in France.

Oh, la vache! Le voleur s'est fait épingler par le flic! (translation:) Wow! That thief got nabbed by the cop! (literal:) Oh, the cow! That thief got stapled by the cop! Sacre bleu! Even after years of trying to learn French, you still have trouble conversing with a native speaker. Why? Because everyday French is filled with slang and colloquialisms. Street French 1 is the first in a series of slang/idiom books that teach you how to speak and understand the real language used daily on the street, in homes, offices, stores, and among family and friends. Entertaining dialogues, word games and drills, crossword puzzles, word searches, and "inside" tips will have you sounding like a native in no time at all.

This easy-to-use book teaches the essentials of colloquial French and French slang in 15 simple lessons. Each lesson describes the language and sentence structure commonly used in a variety of practical settings. Every lesson consists of dialogue, vocabulary, vocabulary practice, grammar, and exercises. Includes a thesaurus, a glossary of all slang terms used in the lessons, and a list of English words commonly used in colloquial French. This updated revision contains pronunciation guides for dialogues, antonyms, synonyms, more exercises, crossword puzzles, and fill-ins plus greatly expanded glossaries.
