Works as an emergency kit item By ReyAce Maybe a little pricey for what you get, but it's a decent map to keep around if you need to get familiar with Las Vegas and just navigate around the most common parts. I got two of them for my wife and 10 year old to throw in a bugout bag/emergency kit. Fit the bill for me, but there's better maps out there for more details and serious navigating. 2 of 2 people found the following review helpful. Just what you need if you really do not need a large map of VEGAS-baby. By E. McConnell It is just what you need to get a quick overview of "The Strip" and "Downtown" Las Vegas, Nevada. One problem would be that if one has problems with their vision as they age this map may not be that good. That is unless you have a handy-dandy device to assist your reading. The map gives just enough information to help and not overwhelm you with facts and figures that you do not need to know. 1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. not what i was looking for By tyrone i guess i must not have read the description as well as i should have. I thought this map would fold out and be easily readable. wrong. if you have really good eyes or a magnifier it might do the job. i was expecting a map that i could mark on and easily tell where things are. if you are looking for a small map to carry in your pocket, than maybe this for you. if you are looking for a map to lay out on a table and easily readable, than keep looking. other than that the map is well laminated and seems very durable.

'Don't leave home without STREETWISE.' --The New York Times 'STREETWISE is an absolute travel essential.' --Travel + Leisure Magazine 'In a strange city, your sense of direction is only as good as the map in your hands. The best maps to carry are published by STREETWISE.' --Chicago Daily Herald About the Author STREETWISE is the first map to be designed with modern graphics and is the originator of the laminated, accordion-fold map format. Weve set the standard that every map company has imitated but never duplicated. Our mission is to make you feel comfortable, to make you feel safe in a place where youve never been before and to enable you to experience a familiar place more fully. The company was founded in 1984 by Michael Brown, who had been in international publishing for many years, setting up subsidiaries for textbook publishers. In the 1970s, Brown traveled extensively throughout Africa, India, the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Brown would take a large paper map, cut out the city center, folded it up and slip it into his pocket, thus preventing him from looking like a tourist in areas where discretion is the better part of travel. This was his tool for surviving. After many years on the road, Brown settled back in New York and decided to start his own business, based on the adaptations he had made to maps in his travels. His goal was to give someone the ability to navigate easily in unfamiliar terrain. He started with a new map format: the accordion fold. Such a simple idea, but at the time it was revolutionary. No more struggling to fold an awkward, oversized paper map. This new format would enable the user to blend in like a native, instead of stick out like a tourist. Brown then added lamination to ensure that the map would be a lasting tool. More important than the format was the design of the map itself. It had to be a map that not only succeeded above and beyond any map he had used, but was esthetically appealing as well. The look of it had to be as striking as the functionality. Color was introduced in a way that was never seen before in a map - vivid purple for water, soothing gray for the background of street grids, gold to highlight elements of the map. Clarity, conciseness and convenience in a very stylish package. Building the business was a 24 hour job. Brown sold the maps during the day, zipping around Manhattan making deliveries on his Harley Davidson. At night he packed the orders and did the design work. More titles were added, each title requiring months of research and design. Today, STREETWISE produces over 130 titles for major destinations, regions and countries throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Australia, Europe, the United Kingdom and Asia. We have grown from the back of a motorcycle to selling millions of maps around the world. Yet each title is still painstakingly researched and updated. STREETWISE is one of the only, if not THE only map company that conducts research by walking or driving an area to ensure accuracy. After all, what good is the map if what you hold in your hands doesn't match what you see on the street sign? This lengthy fact checking results in superior accuracy; in effect, we've done the work, now you have the adventure. In the end, it's not about the map, it's about getting out and finding your own authentic experience wherever you go. It's about being in a city or a region and discovering things that you never thought you would find. You can do this if you have confidence and you have confidence if you have a great map. STREETWISE is the great map that you need.
