The map broken down Paris into three sections so you have to know which section you're looking at. I took this to Paris but did not use it at all. The free local map from the hotel is much much easier to read and better organized. Free maps are everywhere so save a few bucks and use the map from the hotel.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Best Map Of Paris Ever!By CustomerThis is the most comprehensive map of Paris that I've located! It's laminated into 10 individual panels and folds like any other map.The Pros:- Updated January 2015 so VERY up to date !!)- Heavily laminated accordion folding style (10 panels) Won't get wet or stained-Very Comprehensive "street names index" "points of interest" "taxi stands"- Priced right at $6.37 (USD)- Folded size is 3.8 x 8.5" (so it is not going to fit into a shirt pocket)- Shows Batobus Docks - Metro Even RER- Shows the Arrondissement BoundariesThe Cons:-Large size, but this company also makes a "pocket sized" version too!http://www..com/Streetwise-Paris-Metro-Map-Laminated/dp/193125768X/-Wish it would come with a Velcro snap or band, to help keep it closed. Maybe a clear map sleeve.Don't CHEAP OUT on a map of your travel destination, buy a map that's as comprehensive as this one and you'll be happy1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Great map!By Jeanne SuleimanI bought this map and absolutely love it. Everything is well marked so even though I've never been to Paris, I feel pretty comfortable that I will be able to find my way around. I was able to mark with a thin-tipped Sharpie where I'm staying and all the attractions I want to visit. The subway, bus and train routes are all clearly indicated, along with every major attraction - on the map, on an alpha index and by grid. I wish Streetwise offered a more comprehensive choice of cities; I'm also traveling to Reykjavik and wanted a map for there. No such luck. Any traveler buying a Streetwise map will be well prepared!

Streetwise Paris Map - Laminated City Center Street Map of Paris, France - Folding pocket size travel map with integrated metro map including lines stationsThis map covers the following areas:Main Paris Map 1:14,000Paris Metro MapMap of FranceThere are more clichs about Paris than there are tourists at the Louvre, but the fact is that underneath each overused hackneyed clich is a glistening kernel of truth. The City of Light, the City of Love and the City of Romance, familiar platitudes, but once you experience it for yourself you understand why. There is a je ne sais quoi allure to this city that beguiles, but never completely reveals what makes it so universally appealing. Artists, poets, writers, and composers have tried to define exactly what it is about this place, and yet they succeed only to a point. Perhaps it is as elusive as defining love, for to be in Paris entails experiencing love, about someone, something, some place.There is so much to do - you know the big ones, the Louvre, Musee dOrsay, Sacre Coeur, St. Germain des Pres, the Left Bank, the Right Bank, the Arc de Triomphe, the Champs Elyses, the Opra- but dont miss the fun of discovering the small ones, the ones off the beaten path. Nothing like taking your time strolling thru the turn of the century mansion that houses Muse Marmottan then enjoying a caf and patisserie in the museums jewel box caf.Wandering aimlessly is romantic. Getting lost isnt romantic. In fact there are few things that can drain the romance out of a situation faster than realizing that youre hopelessly lost. So take your travel map and put it away if you want to wander, but have no fear that your wandering will turn into a lost odyssey. You can always pull out the STREETWISE Paris Map and get yourself pointed back in the right direction.Paris is not without faults. Sometimes people can be rude, but thats the case anywhere in the world - be it a large city or small village. You get what you give. And in the case of Paris, as with any true love, you accept the flaws with the charms, the weaknesses with the strengths. In the end the true beauty of Paris will surpass any blemish. Life from a Parisian perspective is beautiful. But thats another clich, isnt it?Our pocket size map of Paris is laminated for durability and accordion folding for effortless use. 'Don't leave home without STREETWISE.' --The New York Times'STREETWISE is an absolute travel essential.' --Travel + Leisure Magazine'In a strange city, your sense of direction is only as good as the map in your hands. The best maps to carry are published by STREETWISE.' --Chicago Daily HeraldAbout the AuthorSTREETWISE is the first map to be designed with modern graphics and is the originator of the laminated, accordion-fold map format. Weve set the standard that every map company has imitated but never duplicated. Our mission is to make you feel comfortable, to make you feel safe in a place where you've never been before and to enable you to experience a familiar place more fully. The company was founded in 1984 by Michael Brown, who had been in international publishing for many years, setting up subsidiaries for textbook publishers. In the 1970s, Brown traveled extensively throughout Africa, India, the Middle East and Southeast Asia. Brown would take a large paper map, cut out the city center, folded it up and slip it into his pocket, thus preventing him from looking like a tourist in areas where discretion is the better part of travel. This was his tool for surviving. After many years on the road, Brown settled back in New York and decided to start his own business, based on the adaptations he had made to maps in his travels. His goal was to give someone the ability to navigate easily in unfamiliar terrain. He started with a new map format: the accordion fold. Such a simple idea, but at the time it was revolutionary. No more struggling to fold an awkward, oversized paper map. This new format would enable the user to blend in like a native, instead of stick out like a tourist. Brown then added lamination to ensure that the map would be a lasting tool. More important than the format was the design of the map itself. It had to be a map that not only succeeded above and beyond any map he had used, but was esthetically appealing as well. The look of it had to be as striking as the functionality. Color was introduced in a way that was never seen before in a map - vivid purple for water, soothing gray for the background of street grids, gold to highlight elements of the map. Clarity, conciseness and convenience in a very stylish package. Building the business was a 24 hour job. Brown sold the maps during the day, zipping around Manhattan making deliveries on his Harley Davidson. At night he packed the orders and did the design work. More titles were added, each title requiring months of research and design. Today, STREETWISE produces over 130 titles for major destinations, regions and countries throughout the United States, Canada, Mexico, Australia, Europe, the United Kingdom and Asia. We have grown from the back of a motorcycle to selling millions of maps around the world. Yet each title is still painstakingly researched and updated. STREETWISE is one of the only, if not THE only map company that conducts research by walking or driving an area to ensure accuracy. After all, what good is the map if what you hold in your hands doesn't match what you see on the street sign? This lengthy fact checking results in superior accuracy; in effect, we've done the work, now you have the adventure. In the end, it's not about the map, it's about getting out and finding your own authentic experience wherever you go. It's about being in a city or a region and discovering things that you never thought you would find. You can do this if you have confidence and you have confidence if you have a great map. STREETWISE is the great map that you need.
