Good lab manual to go with Como Se dice, by Jarvis, Lebrede and Mena-Ayllon By Gregg Hardin I bought this to go with Como Se Dice by Jarvis, Lebrede and Mena-Ayllon. Between this book and the hard bound text you can't go wrong, but the work in learning Spanish makes it book hard to complete if you are pressed for time, as I was. They are very thorough. With the lab that comes with the books is an excellent way to learn Spanish. My school has the lab and the lab wasn't extra for me. It would help if you could practice with a native speaker of Spanish or take a class like I did. The hardbound text has maps and in-depth discussions of the different countries where Spanish is spoken.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. You Cannot Print Pages From This Book!!By William MillerDisappointed that it is not possible to print, even limited numbers of pages, from a Kindle book. This wasn't listed in the product description and I felt a little misled because I needed the pages to participate in class. I will NOT rent another Kindle book for this reason.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Note : Manual does not include online access code.The Workbook portion of the SAM provides vocabulary, grammar, reading, and writing practice. The Laboratory Manual activities, designed for use with the SAM audio program, focuses on listening comprehension and pronunciation.

About the AuthorAna C. Jarvis, a native of Paraguay, was born in Asuncion and attended school in Buenos Aires, Argentina. She received her Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside, in 1973. Dr. Jarvis retired from Chandler-Gilbert Community College after a long and distinguished career. Prior to CGCC, she taught at Mesa Community College; the University of California, Riverside; San Bernardino Valley College; Brigham Young University; and Riverside City College. In addition to authoring numerous Spanish textbooks, she has published several short stories in Spanish. In 1988, she was chosen as "Faculty Member of the Year" at Chandler-Gilbert Community College.Raquel Lebrede was born in Camaguey, Cuba. She attended school in Havana and later enrolled at the University of Havana, where she received a Ph.D. in Education. She was subsequently employed as an elementary school principal, and taught literature and language at a preparatory school in Havana. She moved to the United States after living in Spain for a period of time. Dr. Lebrede was awarded a Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside. Since then, she has taught Spanish at Claremont Graduate School, Crafton Hills College, the University of Redlands, and California Baptist University, and has authored several Spanish textbooks. In 1985, she was chosen as "Faculty Member of the Year" by the student body at California Baptist University, and in 1991 she received a YWCA "Women of Achievement" award.Francisco Mena-Ayllon, a native of Madrid, Spain, received his Ph.D. in Spanish from the University of California, Riverside, in 1973. He has taught Spanish language and literature courses at the University of California, Riverside; Oberlin College; California State University, Chico; the University of Redlands; and Crafton Hills College. In addition to authoring numerous Spanish textbooks in the United States, he has published a book about Federico Garcia Lorca and several volumes of his own poetry. His poetry has been published in Spain, Latin America, and the United States. His work has also been included in several anthologies of contemporary Spanish poets, and he is listed in Quien es Quien en las Letras Espanolas, 1978 (Who's Who in Spanish Letters), as an important contributor to contemporary Spanish literature. Professor Mena-Ayllon is now retired.
