expected to wait a month or so , but when time after time I wasn't called to checkout the book I finally placed an order with for this book and two more copies along with it. I should have come to first to say the least . I will give this book a four star rating because it was well written and the author obviously knows what she is talking about when it comes to saving money. I purchased several books with this first order and was very pleased with this book as well as two others. Would definitely recommend this to anyone who has been couponing for years like myself or someone just starting out trying to scrimp and save as much as possible . Thanks for a great read.18 of 19 people found the following review helpful. Not too PleasedBy SueBeeIf you like paying for everything offered, then this book might be for you. I find that in order to take advantage of this book, one must purchase from Susan many other things. Nothing is free. I much prefer the Coupon Mom book. She charge nothing and has a great set up.So, if you want to spend bucks to get into couponing go ahead and follow susan samtur.5 of 5 people found the following review helpful. Not worth the moneyBy Baby BoomerI noticed right away that Ms. Samtur repeats a lot from her previous books. If you've never read any of them, you might glean some useful information from this book. Otherwise, save your money.

The original "Coupon Queen" and New York Times bestselling author shares her unique Five-Step Supershopping System. Regardless of age, locality, and lifestyle, saving money is high on everyone's list today. In this long awaited follow-up to the bestselling Cashing In at the Checkout, Susan Samtur explains her Five-Step Supershopping System, a new technique that will show readers how they can save 50% or more every time they shop. Samtur's is the first system that converges new supermarket savings technologies- rewards programs, store cards, websites-with traditional proven techniques, like couponing and refunding.

About the AuthorSusan Samtur was named the "Coupon Queen" by the New York Times. The mother of four sons, she lives in Scarsdale, New York, with her husband.
