Cute T-Rex book!By Trina ChaseMy 4 year old nephew loves books about dinosaurs - especially T. Rex. I read this to him he loved it. He thought the illustrations were funny!

This encyclopedia entry is written and illustrated by Joey J. Papagopolis, the ten-year-old hero of Max Candee's Globaloonies series. Witty and at times lough-out-loud funny, this book tells all there's to know about T. rex - the most hilarious dinosaur of all times. I bet you didn't even know that T. rex had so much comic potential. You'll learn a bunch of important facts like: - Where does its name come from? - Why were its hands so tiny, and why was its head so big? - What did it eat, and how much did it poop? - Did it have any body odor problems, and why? - And many more... This books is intended for 6-10 year-old children who love to learn and laugh. Think of a school report gone wild. That's the kind of book this is. This is a companion book to the Globaloonies time travel adventure series.

About the AuthorMax Candee is a dad of three curious kids. He writes books for children together with twelve-year-old Ivan, seven-year-old Naomi and five-year-old Maya, who all share their passionate opinions and creative ideas. They even draw in Max's manuscripts, and they love it when professional illustrators build on their suggestions. In fact, Max only publishes those books which his children loved and wanted to share with their friends.
