Updated sixth edition:

Now in its sixth edition, The 500 Best-Value Wines in the LCBO is back with the best wines you can buy through the Liquor Control Board of Ontario. Updated yearly, this new edition rates the vintages actually on the shelves in 2014. The book rates each wine on a five-star, value-for-money scale, provides a concise, no-nonsense description and suggests food pairings. And there is space to add your own notes after you've tried Rod's suggestion. No wine consumer in the LCBO will want to head to the store without this definitive guide. And the appeal of this guide goes beyond the LCBO—chances are you will find many of these wines in most wine stores in Canada. Take advantage of the good- to great-value wines available at reasonable prices, and try something new if you tend to buy the same wine time after time. With updated information and carefully researched reviews, this book is the most comprehensive LCBO wine guide there is. Bottoms up!

About the Author Rod Phillips is the wine columnist for the Ottawa Citizen, author of four books about wine including Ontario Wine Country and several editions of The 500 Best-Value Wines of the LCBO, and contributor to magazines such as The World of Fine Wine, Vines, NUVO, Wine Access and Wine Spectator.
