Excellent trail maps for charting your hike on the Continental Divide trail through Glacier N.P. Only thing missing is distance marks between campsites.

Waterproof Tear-Resistant Topographic Map
National Geographic's Trails Illustrated map of Two Medicine delivers unmatched detail and valuable information to assist you year-round in your exploration of southeastern Glacier National Park. Expertly researched and created in partnership with local land management agencies, this map includes helpful contact information, backcountry hiking and camping tips and regulations, snow hazard areas, safety tips, and more. The map features many key areas of interest including John Stevens Canyon, St. Mary's Lake, Lake McDonald and the historic Going-to-the-Sun road. With clearly marked trails, suspension bridges, plank bridges and unbridged stream crossing, as well as contour lines and elevations for summits, this map will prove invaluable in your exploration of the area in all seasons. The map also includes the shuttle routes and stops for both the Lake McDonald and St. Mary's Valley Shuttles for those wanting to explore the Going-to-the-Sun road without a car. Recreational features such as campgrounds, picnic areas, ski areas, boat rentals/river access points and trailheads are clearly marked as well. Every Trails Illustrated map is printed on "Backcountry Tough" waterproof, tear-resistant paper. A full UTM grid is printed on the map to aid with GPS navigation. Other features found on this map include: Flathead National Forest, Glacier, Great Bear Wilderness, Lewis Clark National Forest, Mount Saint Nicholas, Mount Stimson, Saint Mary Lake.
