The other books you need are Consumers Reports books and the NADA price guides. Having the facts and details readily at hand can save you a ton of cash and keep you from ground into hamburger by the car salesmen. This also goes for buying from private parties. Locked into this is using CARFAX or a related on line car history check. If you know the history of the car can save you a lot GRIEF. Don't be rushed into buying anything. Take your time and most of all don't put up with the high pressure sales tactics of car salesmen or pushy owners.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Still the standardBy

SandRailPilotEdmunds is still the standard in used car buying guides. This had most of the info I was looking for.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. An excellent resourceBy AusNachtThis was my first time buying a car, edmunds helped me greatly. Check their website!
