Andrew Donkin : Weird Creatures Encyclopedia before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Weird Creatures Encyclopedia:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. A fantastic book about different monsters and their legends!By Danny R. SteglichThis is a fantastic book of monsters, about them and their legends!

This is the ultimate guide to weird creatures, describing the wonderful lifeforms that can be found lurking the the shadows of our world somewhere between rumour and accepted reality. Here are the facts as we know them on everyTHING and everyBODY that mankind has encountered in fact and fiction and in those strange dark places in between! This is the ultimate guide to weird creatures. From changelings to werewolves, from ice parasites to yetis via Nessie and the African Congo Dinosaur. And when you've experienced it all. When you think you are ready to go monster hunting, you can take the E.A.T. (The Earth Aptitude Test.) The answers are at the end, but no sneaking a look. You can fool yourself, but you can't fool a Tibetan Thought Form

From the Back Cover Here are the facts as we know them on every'thing' and every'body' that mankind has encountered in fact and fiction and in those strange dark places in between. Grouped into themed Data Files, this book contains more weird creatures than you ever knew existed. From Centaurs and Griffins, to the Mongolian Death Worm, via Goblins, Gremlins and Ghosts, through Hobbits, Dementors, Sea Serpents and even Sunnydale's supernatural Slayer. Only the strangest, most fascinating creatures from real life monster reports, television, fantasy, cinema and science fiction rated high enough on our weird-o-meter to be included. This book contains everything you'll need to know during a field trip to Earth. Whether you're a visiting alien or a resident human, this is your essential survival guide! Don't leave home without one! About the Author Andrew grew up in the London suburb of Ilford. His early ambition was to be an astronaut, however with the British space programme consisting of one washing up bottle painted silver to look like a rocket, tragically it was not to be. Instead he became a writer, at first for comics (in both the UK and USA), and since the mid-nineties he has written over 30 books for children, including Collins, Scholastic, Hodder, Macdonald, DK and Bloomsbury.
